

SGA Celebrates Its Heritage

On March 26, the SGA Heritage Club celebrated its multicultural heritage for the greater Ukrainian American community!

Student participants of the Heritage Concert

The Heritage Club, organized by Ukrainian Studies and ESL teacher Ms. Iryna Chuyan showcased student talents by incorporating dramatic performances, poetry, singing and dancing. Students performed in various languages including English, Ukrainian, Spanish and French.

Sophomore Ksenia Yerokhina performs for the audience

The SGA schoolwide choir, under the direction of Ms. Anya Bachynska concluded the concert with several beautiful songs!

The SGA Drama Club Presents "Faithful"

On May 30, the SGA Drama Club executed this year's theatrical performance of "Faithful" – a medieval comedy about power, revenge and some very clever women.

SGA Drama Club actors during curtain call

The theatrical performance was directed by Social Studies teacher Liza Donovan with the help of many members of the faculty, including Mr. Andrij Stasiw, producer, Ms. Iryna Chuyan, costume designer and Ms. Emily Mowdy, set designer.

Actors performing a song; several actors wait for their cue

Students actively participated in the performance not just as actors, but as set designers, stage managers, backstage crew members and technical assistants.

After the performance, the SGA Chorus performed to the delight of the packed audience.

The SGA Drama Club is currently preparing for next year's theatrical performance!